GRADUATION OF GIRLS

CLASS OF ELEVEN AT FIFTH COMMENCEMENT

Kamehameha Girls School Does Solid and Practical Work for Those Who Follow Courses of Study.

The graduating exercises of the Kamehameha school for girls were held last night at the school hall. It was the Fifth Commencement at this institution and eleven young ladies were in the class of 1901. The commencement program consisted of a series of historical or legendary stories of Hawaii. These were very interesting to the audience and displayed good taste and literary skill on the part of the young ladies.

The hall was prettily decorated and at one end of it sat the eleven young ladies. Principal, Miss Ida M. Pope, Miss P. Perry and Rev. G. L. Pearson were in the company. The graduates were: Misses Elizabeth Davis, Maile Sakuma, Hawley Stone, Louisa Kekaha, Rose Aloia, Maria Pihok, Elizabeth Trask, Mary Yoshioka, Angeline Wohlers, Milala Kinney and Elizabeth Robinson. After the program of eleven short and bright stories, which was interspersed with excellent musical numbers, the presentation of certificates was made by Miss Ida M. Pope.

The class was complimented upon the excellence of its work. The principals spoke of the proficiency of the young lady graduates in the industrial side of their training. Domestic economy, cooking, sewing and other practical lines of work are taught in this institution. The teachers on the faculty the past year were Miss Ida M. Pope, principal; Miss C. B. Albright, Miss Lemmon, Miss McCracken, Miss Forsythe, Miss Hitchcock, Miss Van Nostrand, Miss Adams, Miss Byington.

The commencement program was as follows:

HOUSE ON NAHIKU CO.
ITEM OF $985 PASSED AFTER LONG DISCUSSION
Prendergast Moves to Insert an Item of $10,000 for Repairs to Royal Mausoleum—Favorable Action.

The House held a long and wordy session yesterday afternoon. The chief topic of debate was the Nahiku Sugar Company's claim of $985 for work done for the Government on the Nahiku landing.

Prendergast said he was in favor of striking out the item, on the ground that it was creating a precedent and a loophole through which many more like steals might be made.

Hoogs stated that the Government had run out of money and had asked the Nahiku Sugar Company to complete the work for it, depending upon the next Legislature for its recompense. This the company had done, so its claim was perfectly justifiable.

Makekau said that the evidence was too one-sided for him and wished to hear what the Government had to say on the matter. The Nahiku Sugar Company's petition was investigated and was found to be certified by the Government.

Finally the Maui report containing the item was adopted. The report was as follows:
Makawao, $27,300; Wailuku, $60,250; Lahaina, $56,600; Molokai, $22,008; Lanai, $1,000. Grand total, $268,214. Lahaina (added), $45,000.

The House then went into a Committee of the Whole, and the bill was finished.
Prendergast moved to insert an item of $10,000 for the repairs of the Royal Mausoleum. The item carried.

The committee then reported to the House, and the bill was passed on second reading.
The House adjourned at 4:30 o'clock.
